The grounds and work of our division is based on the managements 20 years of experience in constructing, and on their professional qualification, on contacts built during this time, on following up the needs of the market and forming the best price ever. Our division is effectively operates in both structural architecture and civil engineering. We choose our staff carefully, and continuously train them, thereby ensuring the persistent high quality.